

Kids Books to Go events scheduled for July 27 at Collins Branch Library and July 31 at O'Connell Branch Library

Cambridge, MA, July 26, 2020 – The third event of Kids Books to Go, a new initiative launched by the Cambridge Public Library to help young people in Cambridge access physical library books this summer, will take place on Monday, July 27, from 11a.m. to 2p.m. outside the Collins Branch, 64 Aberdeen Ave.

The fourth event of the initiative will take place on Friday, July 31, from 11 a.m. to 2p.m. outside the O'Connell Branch, 48 Sixth Street.

At Kids Books to Go pop-up events, youth and families may borrow bags of library books for kids and teens without having to make an appointment or place catalog requests. Title selections will be curated by Cambridge Public Library children's librarians.

About the Cambridge Public Library:

At the Cambridge Public Library, we welcome all, inspire minds and empower community. We support a Cambridge where everyone has equitable opportunities to learn, people live their best lives, and democracy thrives. During the Covid-19 health crisis we are offering a variety of programs and services. Visit our website to learn more.

Media Contact:

Muna Kangsen, Manager of Communications, Programs and Events
857-235-9809 mkangsen@cambridgema.gov